The Righteous Shall Live By Faith
A Study for Children and Adults on the Ten Commandments

By Sally Michael

Our vision at Truth78 is that the next generations know, honor, and treasure God, setting their hope in Christ alone, so that they will live as faithful disciples for the glory of God. Our mission is to inspire and equip the church and the home for the comprehensive discipleship of the next generation.

We equip churches and parents by producing curriculum for Sunday School, Midweek Bible, Intergenerational, Youth, and Backyard Bible Club settings; vision-casting and training resources (many available free on our website) for both the church and the home; materials and training to help parents in their role in discipling children; and the Fighter Verses™ Bible memory program to encourage the lifelong practice and love of Bible memory.

Role Play 1:

Draw a conversation bubble.

Draw symbols inside the bubble to indicate swearing.

4B

Role Play 2:

Before the role play, put on the jacket. Walk into the room. Take off the jacket and throw it on the floor.

4C

Role Play 3:

Walk to the front of the class. Say, "I just got a parking ticket!" Show the parking ticket and tear it up.

4D

Role Play 4:

Walk to the front of the room holding the "Christian" sign across your chest. Then stick your tongue out at someone.

4E

Role Play 5: Person 1

Huddle in a group with the other two people. Read:

"Oh that we had meat to eat."

4F

Role Play 5: Person 2

Huddle in a group with the other two people. After Person 1 has read, read:

"We remember the fish we ate in Egypt that cost nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic."

4G

Role Play 5: Person 3

Huddle in a group with the other two people. After Person 2 has read his/her part, read:

"But now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at."

LACK OF FAITH

FOURTH COMMANDMENT

REMEMBER THE SABBATH DAY TO KEEP IT HOLY.

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength; and you shall love your neighbor as yourself. This is the first commandment, which is the chiefest. The second is, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The Sabbath is a gift from God to man.

Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil

Man is a sinner.

Sinful man is not acceptable to a holy God.

Man cannot save himself because he will never be able to perfectly keep God's law.

God has made a way for sinful man to be acceptable before God through Jesus.

Remember
the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Person 1

Person 1—Get up and go to the front of the room and sit on a chair near a table where you've placed a book and an unopened candy bar. Pick up the book and start to read it, but then suddenly remember you forgot something, put down the book, and walk out of the room saying, "Oh no, I forgot all about that!" (Discreetly crack the door open, so you know when to reenter the room.)

Person 2—Get up, look around, walk to the front of the room, and open the candy bar. Take half of the candy bar and walk back to your seat.

Person 1—Return to the room, look at the candy bar, and exclaim, "What happened to my candy bar? Half of it is gone! It wasn't even opened when I left!"

Person 3—Stand up and say, "The janitor came in to clean the room while you were gone and took half of your candy bar. He just left to go outside and empty the trash."

A large, dark brown, rounded shape resembling a footprint. The text "Step 5" is written in the center in a bold, white, sans-serif font with a black outline.

Step 5

The background is a deep red color, densely populated with various shades of red hearts and thin, light red vine-like lines that meander across the space. The hearts vary in size and opacity, creating a textured, romantic feel.

Love God

The image features a vibrant red background filled with a pattern of white hearts of various sizes and orientations. Some hearts are solid white, while others are outlined. The text "Love Others" is written in a large, bold, white, sans-serif font, oriented vertically from top to bottom. The word "Love" is on the left and "Others" is on the right.
