<ul> <li>GROUP ONE: Surrender your dignity</li> <li>Matthew 5:39bBut if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also.</li> <li>BACKGROUND NOTES:</li> <li>"A 'slap on the right cheek' does not signify a physical attack but also a deliberate insult. It is a backhanded slap, which in the Middle East is a great insult equivalent to spitting at someone in the face in our culture. This disdainful act of gross offensiveness was subject to a fine greater than the average man's wages for a whole year."</li> <li>Slightly adapted from Ferguson, Sinclair. The Sermon on the Mount. (Carlisle, Penn.: Banner of Truth Trust, 1987), 100.</li> </ul>	GROUP TWO: Surrender your legal rights Matthew 5:40And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. BACKGROUND NOTES: The tunic is the inner garment; the cloak the outer garment. The cloak could be given as a pledge of financial payment but it had to be returned to the owner every night because it served not only as an article of clothing but also as a blanket. As such, it was of significant value to the owner. Slightly adapted from: Ferguson, Sinclair: The Sermon on the Mount. (Carlisle, PA.: Banner of Trust, 1987), 100-101.
GROUP THREE: Surrender your time and freedom Matthew 5:41And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. BACKGROUND NOTES: In the Roman Empire, a Roman official or soldier could demand anyone carry something for him. The person asked was obligated to fulfill the soldier's demand. The Jews resented this practice. Slightly adapted from Ferguson, Sinclair. The Sermon on the Mount. (Carlisle, PA: Banner of Truth Trust, 1987), 101.	GROUP FOUR: Surrender your possessions Matthew 5:42Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you.

In the 16th century, Phillip II sent the Duke of Alba to Flanders [Belgium] to stamp out the Protestants who insisted on reading the Scriptures in their own language. Anyone found studying a Bible was hanged, drowned, torn to pieces, or burned alive at the stake.

The Inquisitors had found the Bible while inspecting the house of the Mayor of Brugge. One by one, family members were questioned, but everyone claimed they knew nothing about how the Bible got into their house.

Finally, the officials asked the young maidservant, Wrunken, who boldly declared, "I am reading it!"

The mayor, knowing the penalty of studying the Bible, tried to defend her saying, "Oh, no, she only owns it. She doesn't ever read from it."

But Wrunken chose not to be defended by a lie. "This book is mine. I am reading from it, and it is more precious to me than anything!"

She was sentenced to die by suffocation. A place would be hollowed in the city wall, she would be tied in it, and the opening would be bricked over. On the day of her execution, as she stood by the wall, an official tried to get her to change her mind, saying, "So young and beautiful--and yet to die."

Wrunken replied, "My Savior died for me. I will also die for Him."

As the bricks were laid higher and higher, she was warned again, "You will suffocate and die in here!"

"I will be with Jesus," she answered.

Finally, the wall was finished, except for the one brick that would cover her face. For the last time, the official tried to persuade her. "Repent—just say the word and you will go free."

But Wrunken refused, saying instead, "O Lord, forgive my murderers."

The brick was put in place.

Lesson 36: Focus #3 | Teach Me Your Way © 2008 Next Generation Resources, Inc. | Truth78

Because sin is very deceitful, we must actively fight for our own faith and the faith of those around us using the Word of God.

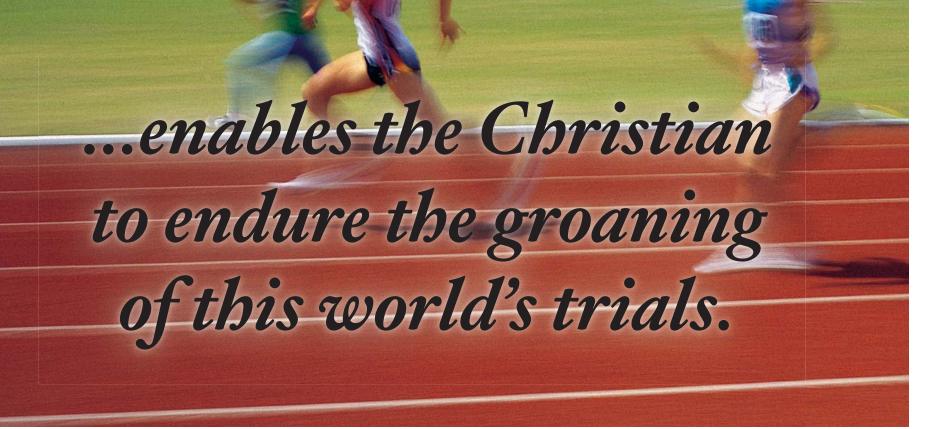

The Christian should submit his mind, heart and will daily to King Jesus, who promises a great reward in the coming kingdom.
